Feelgood Friday Newsletter

23rd September
2022

From the Headteacher's Office...

Dear Children, Parents and Carers,

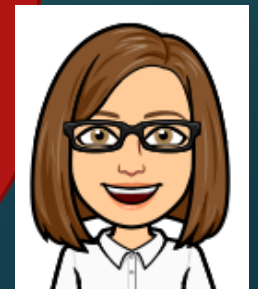

It has been another incredibly busy week in school, with lots we would like to celebrate this week. Back in July, the school was inspected by Ofsted and we are now in a position to share that report with parents and staff – it will be emailed to you, so please do check your emails.

In school, we have welcomed our Owls classes in full time and it has been wonderful to see how quickly they have settled and got used to school routines. They have started learning to read using Read, Write Inc, our Phonics programme and we are looking forward to sharing more information about this programme and all the other things the children will be doing this year in our Celebration Cafes. These start next Friday 30th September at 9 am with Year 1 (Red Kites and Yellow Bill Kites) and we hope that as many of our Year 1 parents as possible are able to join us – an invite will be coming out shortly!

Our older children also have lots to celebrate this week – our Choir did us proud at a concert at Jack Hunt on Thursday and were even joined on stage by some former pupils. We've also got some exciting news to share regarding two of our Year 6 children in this newsletter – read on to find out more!

Best wishes,

Mrs Bowyer (Headteacher)

On Thursday our Year 6 Choir had the opportunity to perform at Mrs Kilby's Leaving Concert at Jack Hunt School. They sang their hearts out and represented our school beautifully. Everyone at Ravensthorpe is so very proud of you!

Do you remember this competition, which ran during the summer holidays? Well, I am delighted to announce that Ravensthorpe won! A huge congratulations to Sintija and Elija in Year 6, whose designs are currently being turned into giant display boards that will be seen by everyone driving past the new bridge! On Monday, they will be receiving their prizes in a special ceremony at the bridge and we hope to share more photos next week. Congratulations Sintija and Elija, we are so proud of you!
