AUTUMN TERM 2024

WHY IS TALKING TO CHILDREN ABOUT ONLINE SAFETY IS SO IMPORTANT?

The internet, social media, and AI are not going away. They are integral parts of our world today and will continue to be in the future. Therefore, it's crucial that we educate our children about these technologies to help them navigate the digital landscape safely and responsibly.

ONLINE SAFETY TIPS

In today's digital age, online safety is crucial. Here are some tips to help your children stay safe online:

- Monitor Online Activity: Regularly check the websites and apps your child uses.
- Privacy Settings: Ensure privacy settings are enabled on social media accounts.
- Open Communication: Encourage your child to talk about their online experiences.

SAFEGUARDING WEEKS IN SCHOOL

Every half term, we have a specific focus on different elements of keeping safe. The next one is going to be about the importance of being able to be seen in the dark.
